Brenda Gibson

Title : Faith

When reflecting on the subject of "Space" . I couldn't help but think of the greater picture of the Universe as a whole, and what that means to me.

I have created a piece that reflects my belief that you chose your path in life; although our path might not look the way we think it should, if you focus on your true dream and don't let fear hold you back. I believe it will unfold as it should.
