

Carol Hoover

Title: Beyond the Earth

Statement:

This work strives to catch the excitement of the elusive nature of watercolour when the paint is so alive with motion and glowing intensity. In the often unpredictability of watercolour, that so many artists bemoan, is found moments of great beauty. I celebrate, in this piece, this unruly transience by using photography to capture these fleeting moments of vibrancy that fade like the proverbial beach pebble.